

Hypocrisy and Sulfuric Acid

“HATE-FILLED NEUROTICS”

Paul Joseph Goebbels was a member of the Reichstag and campaigned for Hitler, later becoming head of his propaganda ministry and committing suicide at the end of World War II

(Jun. 23, 2018) — As your faithful servant has noted here before, if hypocrisy did not exist, liberals would invent it at breakfast simply to survive until lunch. It is the mother’s milk of the leftists, most Democrats and virtually all mainstream media lunatics. If hypocrisy is their mother’s milk, then for their in-between beverage to quench their thirst for revenge over the botching of the 2016 election by Bill’s Bride, one need look no farther than sulfuric acid as the distilled hatred for all things related to or even vaguely supportive of President Trump. Hypocrisy is their milk; hatred is their recreational beverage of choice.

With each passing day..., no., make that each passing hour, the mendacious insanity of the left becomes more evident. As President Trump seeks to enforce the law to protect Americans in this nation, the left seeks at every turn to undermine those efforts with obscene threats (caveat: vulgarities), intimidation and harassment and yet more hypocrisy. Their talent for selective amnesia is also noteworthy.

The latest example of the depths to which they are willing to plumb comes in the form of the Time magazine cover image showing a little girl crying and looking up at President Trump. The message above the child reads: “Welcome to America.” The cut-and-pasted image, of course, is intended to portray Trump as the uncaring, evil person who demanded that the child be separated from her mother when the two of them crossed the border illegally. Better stated, the mother knowingly transported her toddler daughter across the border and was apprehended.

The trouble is, however, that the image conveys the intentionally false impression that the little girl, consistent with President Trump’s “zero tolerance” policy for dealing with the invasion of the southern border, was sarcastically welcoming her into the country... where she would be separated from her mother.

In fact (and truth), the girl was never separated from her mother. But since the anti-Trump narrative now controlling the Fourth Estate required that a blind eye be turned to facts and truth, “journalistic license” dictated that a false impression be marketed as reality. Speaking of dictatorial actions, this, of course, was the same tactic employed by Third Reich Minister of Propaganda Josef Goebbels in the run-up to World War II. It is also the current bottom of the pit to which the only profession protected by the Constitution has bored. Rest assured, the downward boring will continue and even more levels of journalistic deceit will be forthcoming.

All of this reminds one of the “treachery of images”: the posting to the Internet of a fraudulent image of a birth certificate purporting to “settle” one’s claim of constitutional eligibility to the presidency as a “natural born Citizen.”

The bottom line here, ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls, is that the longer these fundamentally neurotic and dangerous anti-Trump antics go on, the more evident it becomes that the leftists, the progressives and the Democrats have irretrievably forfeited any claim of right or competence to govern a free people. With every obscenity (sometimes even withdrawn with an “if-I-offended-anyone-I-regret-doing-so” faux apology... after 500,000 re-Tweets), they reveal their true nature as hate-filled neurotics.

The cure for the disease they seek to spread across the nation is to remove their leaders at the ballot box. All of them.

You may not like Republicans, but a vote for virtually any Democrat in the coming mid-term elections will be a vote for more acidic hatred, more obscenities hurled at President Trump and, ultimately, the subsidizing of the continued destruction of the nation. It is that simple; it is that serious.
