

Is There No End to the Left's Civility?

"RADICAL MALCONTENTS"

by Joseph DeMaio, ©2022

https://twitter.com/AP_Scoop/status/1486429819331956738

(Jan. 28, 2022) — In yet another spectacularly shining example of civility and kumbaya gushing from the “stop the hate” gang on the Left, one Alyssa Mastromonaco – former Deputy Chief of Staff and advisor to the Second Usurper in Chief (“SUC”), Barack Hussein Obama, Jr. – has complimented Senator Kyrsten Sinema (D. AZ) on her principled stance regarding preservation of the Senate filibuster. The actual audio/video of the compliment is found here, at least until it is scrubbed.

Ummm... just kidding. The obscenity of Mastromonaco’s remarks is exceeded only by her juvenile butchering of grade-school rules of grammar. And this was a senior advisor to the SUC? Seriously? Actually, Mastromonaco’s vulgar slamming of Sinema may well have been influenced by the SUC’s own refined evaluation of the Goofball during the 2020 presidential campaign. The SUC warned: “Don’t underestimate Joe’s ability to %&*# things up.” Your humble servant is no fan of the SUC, but the wisdom of that caveat during just the time the Goof has occupied the office thus far has proven itself over and over again.

All sarcasm aside, Mastromonaco’s vile tirade against a U.S. Senator merely underscores the mendacious, even evil motivations of the Democrats. The notion that their pet Trojan Horse bills had anything at all to do with election integrity – dismantled here – is laughable. Then again, with Brandon the Clown shuffling between the Oval Office and the nearest Ben & Jerry’s ice cream parlor, what else would you expect?

Instead, S.2747 – the “Freedom to Vote Act” – and H.R. 4 – the “John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act” – were thinly-veiled power plays cosmetically-labeled and intended to cement in place expanded opportunities for election chicanery and perpetual Democrat electoral dominance. Since the States are seeking to minimize the potentials for such skullduggery, the Left is petrified that they might actually succeed. And Mastromonaco is outraged that Sinema would act in the better interests of the electorate, the Senate and the Republic. How dare she... who the %&*# does she think she is?!!

Niccolo Machiavelli (1469-1527) Wikimedia Commons, public domain

Stated otherwise, these radical malcontents apparently see the destruction of the filibuster as a desperate last gasp attempt to codify to their perpetual benefit rules which would facilitate and even invite election fraud. Rational argument and reasoned debate have been tossed to the curb in favor of Machiavellianism on steroids. And if slandering a U.S. Senator of your own party must be undertaken in retaliation for the taking of a principled stance, so be it. Civility. Right.

Candidly, one must wonder: why do Senators Manchin (D. W. VA) and Sinema (D. AZ) remain Democrats? Might a “Reagan epiphany” be on the horizon? Savor this: Minority Leader Schumer before the 2022 mid-terms. Sweet.