

Might Impeachment Be On The Horizon?

"NO LONGER A FANTASY"

(Oct. 21, 2021) — Well, whatta ya know...? Arguably, it was only a matter of time before either (or both) Senator Joe Manchin (D. W. VA) and Senator Kyrsten Sinema (D. AZ) began questioning their continued allegiance to the political party now dedicated to the destruction of the Republic.

Senator Manchin may be on that path, and if he bolts, could Sinema be far behind? Hey, when the Democrat Party goes stark raving left – as began when the Goofball was “elected” – only a lunatic would voluntarily remain associated with that malignant cabal.

With Manchin being shadowed at his houseboat by leftist kayakers and Sinema being harassed and video-recorded in an Arizona State University restroom, each for standing up against the Goofball’s insane $3,500,000,000,000.00 “Build Back Better” disaster, a blind Martian could see their frustrations.

Specifically, rumors have begun surfacing that Sen. Manchin may be getting ready to leave the Democrats and become an Independent. If those reports turn out to be accurate, the hypothetical posited here begins to look less delusional and more plausible. And the fact that Manchin used a fairly colloquial noun to deny the rumor seems only to lend more weight to the potential. Time will tell.

Faithful P&E readers, is no secret that your humble servant considers the immediate impeachment of the “Let’s Go Brandon” current occupant of the Oval Office an imperative. His continued presence in the office is an existential threat to the Republic. Oh, and did I mention: the Goof has access to the nation's nuclear missile launch codes?

As noted here, the Goofball's madness metastasizes, largely unchecked and unabated. With each passing day, week and month, the Democrat majority in the U.S. House propels and facilitates the continued driving of the Republic downward, all in concert with the insane policies of the Goofball-in-Chief, sometimes now colloquially known as just "Brandon."

As but the most recent outrage, Goof Brandon's de facto eradication of the nation's southern border will result in some 1,700,000 illegal aliens to have flooded into the country during the single federal fiscal year ended September 30, 2021. Oh, yeah..., and that doesn't even include those who escaped apprehension and "got away," disappearing into the fabric of a fractured nation. When the regime-apologist Washington ("Democracy Dies in Darkness") Post confirms that this figure is the "highest ever recorded" and that "[b]order enforcement has become a major political liability" for Goofball Brandon, unless you are as blind as a Wuhan bat, you know that the alien invasion is a problem.

The illegal alien invasion, of course, is only a small part of the pogrom against the Republic being designed and conducted by the Goofball and his apparatchik Democrats in Congress. The despotic pandemic mask and vaccination mandates; the threats against parents for daring to care about what their kids are taught; the "building back better" of the Taliban in Afghanistan; the joy of gasoline at $5.00/gal. and $100 per tank fill-up thanks to the Goof's destruction of America's energy independence; and the dramatic mushrooming of inflation rates not seen in decades..., all are the hallmarks of a president in name only.

A true president will not seek to divide, undermine and destroy the nation which has endured for nearly 250 years. Yet this is precisely what the Goof, manipulated by his marionette-masters from behind the curtain and scripting his every remark in collusion with "reporters" and "invitation-only" individuals, is doing.

The solution, of course, is impeachment, as discussed here. It is no longer a fantasy or a pipe-dream. The impeachment of the Goof has become an existential imperative. The next in the line of succession — Kackling Kamala — while equally incompetent, does not appear to have the same degree of mendacity, malevolence and hatred for the nation as does the shell at 1600. Moreover, Harris does not have a son who cozies up to the Chinese.

And while her succession to the presidency would likely be unconstitutional on the grounds that she is ineligible to the office, as discussed here, allowing the Goof to continue his tyrannical rampages any longer than the time it would take to impeach and remove him each day becomes more unacceptable.

Furthermore, with the breaking rumor that Senator Joe Manchin may be considering leaving his party and becoming an Independent – granted, becoming a Republican might be a “bridge too far” for Manchin – that would bring the Senate closer to the magic 67 votes needed to convict and remove the Goof. And if Senator Sinema did the same, that would bring the total even closer.

The bottom line here is that those who value the preservation and protection of the Republic from the destructive impulses of the Goof, Chuck Schumer and Nancy Pelosi have a clear choice: they can remain a part of the problem or they can become a part of the solution.

Not a lot of time to waste here.
