(Jul. 29, 2023) — Well, whatta ya know? The rude, ill-bred and profane grandfather at 1600 has decided to “recognize” – not to be confused with “embrace” – his granddaughter, Navy Joan.

Navy Joan’s father is Hunter Biden, currently trying to recover not only from cocaine addiction, but also from the “Oppenheimer Event” that detonated in a Delaware federal courtroom last week when his collusive “sweetheart” plea deal went critical mass. Her mother is Lunden Roberts, a former stripper and “acquaintance” of the ne’er-do-well father.

Understand that this action was not taken out of love or caring for Navy Joan. Nooooo..., silly P&E reader. It was taken because the political “optics” of Brandon and Dr. Jill in denying the very existence of a child with whom they share DNA was getting too ugly. One Substack writer commented: “Nothing says ‘I love you’ like pivoting on poll numbers.” When People Magazine calls your actions “absolutely disgusting,” you know..., or your marionette-masters know..., that you have a problem.

He claims that “this is not a political issue, it is a family matter.” That prevarication rings as true as his claim that he never, ever even spoke with his crack-head offspring – the smartest man he knows – about his foreign business dealings.

Brandon is a walking – and more often stumbling and falling – disaster, not only from the perspective of being the purported and “rumored” leader of the free world, never more than a few yards from the nuclear football, but from the perspective of a DNA-linked grandfather of a four year-old little girl.

Stated otherwise, Brandon simultaneously epitomizes that which is incompetent and dangerous in a chief executive as well as churlish and disgusting in a human grandfather. He is at minimum a national embarrassment and threat who needs to resign as president by sundown.

As for Navy Joan, let us see whether her recent recognition by Brandon and Dr. Jill lasts until Christmas, when perhaps, for the first time in her young life, she will have a Christmas stocking hanging in the White House..., along with the one for Commander, the White House dog. With any luck, the stocking will not be filled with coal.
