

The Dark Pocket of Depravity

– Jen Psaki, White House Press Secretary, April 25, 2022

(Apr. 26, 2022) — Incompetence is one thing. Intentional failure to “take Care that the Laws be faithfully executed” is another. But moral depravity is a dark pocket of evil unique unto itself. With the recent acts and omissions of the Goofball-in-Chief and his cabal of enablers and apparatchiks, we have been witness to all three.

The examples of the Goof’s gross incompetence are far too numerous to adequately catalog here. But for openers, just recall the Afghanistan catastrophe; the cancellation of Keystone XL and resulting $6.00/gal. gasoline; inflation rates not seen in four decades; the Wuhan C-19 debacle; the Goof repeating the chant, “Let’s Go Brandon” at Christmas..., etc., etc..., etc.

As for his abject failure to comply with the unambiguous directive of Art. 2, § 3 of the Constitution that he “shall take Care that the Laws be faithfully executed” (emphasis added), look no farther than his impeachable offense of not only ignoring, but directly violating – and incentivizing others to violate – the nation’s immigration laws.

In particular, despite the prohibitions on illegal entry into the United States set out in 18 U.S.C. § 1325, the Goof and his feckless agent, Department of Homeland “Security” Secretary Alejandro Majorkas, refuse to observe or enforce the prohibitions on illegal entries of unauthorized aliens into the United States. Mercifully – like a judicial deus ex machina – U.S. District Court Judge Robert R. Summerhays has indicated he will grant a motion for a temporary restraining order (“TRO”) sought in a lawsuit brought by the Attorneys General of Arizona, Missouri and Louisiana. Yes, Virginia, Judge Summerhays is a Trump appointee, halting the “repeal” of “Title 42.” Translation: the mal-identified “Title 42” restriction, allowing the deportation and barring of entry to aliens on health-security grounds, will remain in place...., for now.

Naturally, the “open borders” crowd and cabal of “asylum and amnesty for all” are in meltdown, the mayors of Tucson, Arizona (Democrat Regina Romero) and Brownsville, Texas (non-partisan, but voted for the Goof Trey Mendez) bleating that ending the “Title 42” practice would “uphold our legal and moral obligation of providing the fundamental right to seek asylum.” Tell that to – among hundreds of others – Mary Ann Mendoza, Jim Steinle and most recently, the husband and sons of Orsolya Gaal. Memo to the mayors of Tucson and Brownsville: there is no right to illegally invade a nation by persons motivated solely by economic factors masquerading as claims of entitlement to asylum. None. Moreover, there is great danger in doing same.

But the darkest pocket of callous depravity takes the form of the maw opening beneath the nose of the Goof’s soon-to-be-departed press secretary, Madame Psaki. A Texas National Guard member, Specialist Bishop E. Evans – a 22-year-old African-American – drowned in the Rio Grande River. He dove in to save two illegal aliens, later confirmed to be drug smugglers, struggling in the river. They survived. Evans did not.

With characteristic compassion and empathy, Psaki responded to a reporter’s question as to whether the regime bore any responsibility for the death or had any comment on the matter..., after four days of silence following Evans’s dive into the water and on the day recovery teams found his body downstream:

“Of course we are mourning the loss of his life and we are grateful for the work of every national guardsman,” then gratuitously adding, “I would note that the National Guard work for the states and so he is an employee of the Texas National Guard and his efforts and his operation were directed by there [sic: them], not by the federal government in this effort – in this apparatus.” Classy. Blame Texas for the Goof’s indifference to the border crisis.

Seriously? This piece of.., let us be polite here: work... has the compassion of a scorpion and the charm of a cobra. What better place for her to touch down than MSNBC, where the detritus of a failed presidency can find new victims to poison? Too bad CNN+ folded too soon, as she would have been a good fit there, too.

Memo to P&E readers: it is your humble servant's unshakable prediction that the Goofball regime, along with its sycophants and jabbering operatives, will go down in the history of the Republic as the worst of the worst. Hands down. Not even close.

Compared to the corruption, incompetence and flat-out anti-American nature of the current regime, Nixon's "Waterloo" – Watergate – was an Easter Egg roll on the South Lawn. And as Lynyrd Skynyrd noted: "Now, Watergate does not bother me..., does your conscience bother you? Tell me true."
