

The Dumpster Inferno

by Joseph DeMaio, ©2022

Stephen Radford, Unsplash, License

(Jun. 11, 2022) — For those who insanely believed that the nation would be better off once Orange Man Bad was out of the White House, you were wrong. Sooooo wrong.

And to all who voted for the addled sap now residing at 1600 Pennsylvania – Brandon the Goofball (“BTG”) – your humble servant asks again: Are you happy now?

You must be absolutely giddy over gasoline prices doubling since President Trump left office; you are no doubt ecstatic that inflation and the consumer price index is now raging at rates not seen for over 40 years, since 1981; and surely you are thrilled that your real take-home pay – assuming you even have a paying job – has now dropped by 3.4%, canceling your raise, all thanks to BTG.

And trying to pin the blame for inflation on Putin is not only stupid, it is what a four-year-old would deploy as an excuse for spilled milk. What a jerk.

And this doesn’t even get to his Afghanistan debacle, the evaporating southern border with its accompanying tsunami of illegal aliens and the Big Brother surveillance of citizens (illegals exempted) being implemented by the FBI, CIA and Department of “Justice” (sic).

On June 9, 2022, the January 6 “Select Committee” held a prime-time public hearing on what it claims was an “insurrection” at the U.S. Capitol on January 6, 2021 over the declared results of the November 3, 2020 presidential election

None of this matters, of course, to the intellectual termites you elected to “represent” us. They are more concerned about making sure that their January 6 kabuki theater Star Chamber proceeding does something..., anything..., to moderate the upcoming mid-term election bloodbath. Memo to the electorate: the bloodbath cannot come soon enough.

And recall that the Wretch from San Crapcisco has slow-walked a Senate bill to beef up security for Supreme Court Justices following the Brett Kavanaugh assassination attempt. Surely she would not do something like that in order to facilitate the potential opening of another position on the Court which the Goof could fill..., would she? Nah, that would be..., wrong..., really wrong. Right?

And to compare the Goof’s incompetence to that of Jimmy Carter is to denigrate Jimmy Carter. Yet the Goof seethes at the comparison and fumes that reporters are not touting the “successes” of his presidency.

President Biden Delivers Remarks at the Port of Los Angeles

4,648 views • Jun 10, 2022

114 DISLIKE SHARE SAVE ...

The White House
2.05M subscribers

SUBSCRIBED

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wdKrBS_zgvvg

The only “successes” to which he may lay claim are those of successfully decimating the economy; abandoning the country’s energy independence in favor of cozying up to foreign enemies; eradicating the southern border; and, of course, displacing Jimmy Carter as the worst president in the history of the Republic. But those seem to have been his goals from the start.

Rest assured, Virginia, unless something is done soon, the dumpster inferno will worsen by November. Recall as well that even if the GOP retakes the House – and maybe even the Senate – those replacements won’t take office until January, 2023. A lot more damage can take place by then: think \$10.00/gal. gasoline.

Again, to the fans of BTG: Are you happy now?