

The Emma-Jo Morris Flamethrower

by Joseph DeMaio, ©2023

<https://twitter.com/simionateba/status/1682032928124174336>

(Jul. 22, 2023) — Emma-Jo Morris was the reporter who broke the Hunter (“does-this-bong-make-me-look-dumber-than-my-dad?”) Biden laptop story at The New York Post (founded in 1801, by the way, by Alexander Hamilton) in the weeks preceding the 2020 general election. She recently testified before the House Select Subcommittee on the Weaponization of the Federal Government..., and proceeded to apply a flamethrower – followed by a couple of strategically targeted cluster bombs – to the FBI, the Justice Department and others in the media for colluding and prevaricating (lying) to censor and discredit her laptop story. And deservedly so. Watch her video clip.

In fact, it is now known that, not only was her reporting documented and exactly correct, the censorship pogrom that suppressed the electorate’s knowledge and understanding of the defalcations of Hunter Biden and his father, Bozo Brandon, actually impacted the 2020 general election. Stated otherwise, the censorship collusion among the Democrat players and their cabal-mates directly interfered with the election and skewed the vote in favor of Brandon and against Trump.

Specifically, seventeen percent (17%) of self-identified Brandon voters in six “swing” states – Arizona, Georgia, Michigan, Nevada, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin – reported that, had they known of the truth regarding the laptop, its contents and the lies being propagated by Brandon and his apparatchiks in the lead-up to the election, they would not have voted for him. That does not mean, of course, that they would have voted for President Trump, but it does mean – assuming they were telling the truth, always a rebuttable presumption when conducting polls – that Brandon would have been defeated and President Trump would have been reelected, and by a comfortable margin of nearly 7 million votes, even discounting some who might have voted for Trump.

Given that Democrat politicians and many more Democrat media talking heads, academicians and faux “legal experts” continuously bleat that President Trump and Republicans in general constitute a “threat” to the very foundations of “democracy” in the nation, your humble servant anxiously awaits an explanation and justification for the now proven 2020 interference and undermining of the democratic elections which Democrats purport to defend. In truth, they do not defend democracy: they undermine it. As noted on prior occasions, all Democrat office-holders – from Brandon on down to the deep blue municipal dogcatcher – can be trusted about as far as one can shot-put a locomotive: zero. They have forfeited any claim of right to govern a free people in a constitutional republic and must be removed from office..., permanently.