

The Even Shorter DeMaio P&E Post Ever

(Nov. 5, 2022) — Last July, your humble servant offered the “Shortest DeMaio P&E Post Ever.” It was 122 words long. It posited that Democrats then possessed of governmental power had forever forfeited any claim of right or competence to protect or govern a free people. That reality has only metastasized since then.

This offering is even shorter, at 109 words: on November 8th, every single Democrat – without exception – in or aspiring to a position of governmental power and up for election should be defeated or voted out of office..., and never allowed back lest they then succeed in annihilating the constitutional Republic – not a “democracy” – that has survived since 1789.

Period.
