(Jul. 23, 2022) — Mea culpa..., mea culpa..., mea maxima culpa. Your humble servant is not Catholic, but he invokes the Latin expression to confess his grievous error first set out nearly a year ago here ; then here, and most recently here. That error consisted of believing – honestly, but apparently naively – that there remained at least “Five House Democrat Proto-patriots” (the “FHDP”) with a trace of love of country who were willing to place nation ahead of Democrat party politics.

The wishful hope was that at least five – now ballooned to over 30 – House Democrats who had announced their decision to not seek re-election saw the perils of a continuing Goofball regime.

The thought was that if the House could be shifted to GOP control by the minimum necessary number of Democrats renouncing their party and re-registering as Republicans before the 2022 mid-term elections, the beginning of the end of the nightmare might launch ASAP.

Lamentably, your servant was wrong.

Not only has the requisite number of Democrats failed to materialize, the most recent vote by every House Democrat to defeat a GOP-sponsored amendment to ban sales of oil from the nation’s Strategic Petroleum Reserve (“SPR”) by the Goofball regime to..., wait for it..., wait for it: Communist China only underscores the reality that, if you are a Democrat in Congress, you must hate America. Otherwise, you will be placed on the Wretch of San Crapisco’s black list.

Because on day one Brandon killed the Keystone XL Pipeline project, when coupled with his inflation-incentivizing spending policies, many drivers across the nation are still paying over $6.00/gallon for gasoline..., and more for diesel. The Goof's policy of placing foreign enemy energy needs above those of Americans speaks volumes regarding his priorities and allegiances. MAGA is not and never has been a component of his DNA, nor, apparently, any House Democrat.

More than a few Democrats in the House of Representatives, even now, confirm that they too share Brandon's preference for foreign needs over Americans' needs. The Democrats in Congress, along with those who voted them into office in the first place, have forfeited – in perpetuity – any claim of right or competence to govern the free people of the Republic. And if they won't do the right thing by voluntarily abandoning the Marxist drift of their political party, they must be permanently removed from office this coming November. Forever. No exceptions.

Yes, Virginia..., it is that simple.
