

The Foreign Influence Issue

WHO IS THE TRUE “USURPER?”

(Jun. 20, 2019) — One of the more ironic, if not outright comical and hypocritical aspects of the Democrats’ case of the vapors over Russian “meddling” in our elections is the claim that such “foreign influence” is anathema to the ideals of our constitutional republic. Fortifying that assertion is the specious claim that President Trump encouraged and facilitated this impropriety. Treason! Impeach 45!!

Really? Let that concept sink in for a moment. The Democrats, including the radical fringe progressives like AOC and Elizabeth Warren, the talking heads of CNN, MSNBC and CBS and the editors over at Pravda on the Hudson (aka The New York Times) scream apoplectic over the “evidence” – fantasy fiction, mind you – that President Trump purportedly “colluded” and “conspired” with the Russians to make sure he was elected president over Hillary (“I-had-nothing-to-do-with-the-Benghazi-attack”) Clinton. The faux “crime” which he supposedly committed is claimed to have cut to the core and decimated the values and principles enshrined in the Constitution and “defended” by the Left that foreign influence in the selection of who shall be our president be forever precluded.

Memo to faithful P&E readers: does all this sound familiar?

Back in 1787, when the Founders were laboring over the wording of the Constitution, they made it abundantly clear that the new nation was to be formed and perpetuated free of foreign influence creeping into and then permeating its governing apparatus. Specifically, Alexander Hamilton warned in Federalist 68 regarding deliberations over the creation of both the Electoral College and the Office of the President:

“Nothing was more to be desired than that every practicable obstacle should be opposed to cabal, intrigue, and corruption. These most deadly adversaries of republican government might naturally have been expected to make their approaches from more than one quarter, but chiefly from the desire in foreign powers to gain an improper ascendant in our councils. How could they better gratify this, than by raising a creature of their own to the chief magistracy of the Union? But the convention have guarded against all danger of this sort, with the most provident and judicious attention.” (Emphasis added)

If today’s Democrats, progressive-socialists and leftists are so concerned now about the claimed attempts by President Trump to “collude” with a foreign power to affect who shall be elected to the “chief magistracy of the Union...,” where was their concern when Barack Hussein Obama II was running for president, first in 2008 then later in 2012? Huh? Hello, AOC? Hello, Bernie? Hello, Maddow? Hello, NYT? Anyone?

The mountain of evidence continues to grow that, even if he was, as he claims, born at the Kapi’olani Hospital in Honolulu in 1961 – and the empirical facts seem incontrovertibly to establish that this claim was false when he was elected in 2008 and 2012, and remains false today – he was not then and is not now a “natural born Citizen” as required under the Constitution. Period.

Obama’s silence and refusal to “come clean” now, well after the end of his two terms as usurper-in-chief – and particularly after video evidence has surfaced where he concedes that he “comes from Kenya” – speaks volumes about not only his faked eligibility, but about his candor and trustworthiness. Let us watch carefully as Attorney General Barr probes the depths of the Deep State Swamp, including, with any luck, recovered emails between Obama and Clinton – BleachBitted into intended oblivion by Slick Willie’s spouse – shedding light on just how far up the food chain the corruption extends.

Stated otherwise, that which was crystal clear to the Founders over 230 years ago regarding “foreign influence” over our governing processes has been dumped by the Democrats and their media apparatchiks down the Memory Hole. It was an inconvenient wart on the party line and collective narrative falsely fortifying Obama’s claim of eligibility, so it had to be eliminated. But when Donald Trump became President Trump, whoa... bring that “foreign influence” issue back to life. Truth and reality no longer matter to present-day Democrats and progressives, so blinded have they eagerly become in their hatred for President Trump. All that matters is that he be destroyed while in office and, if that effort fails, defeated in the 2020 general election.

One can wander neighborhoods across the nation where front yards and porches display small signs with the uplifting message: “Hate has no home here.” Those signs are normally found on properties owned (or rented) by Democrats and leftists, unapologetically dedicated to a hatred of Donald Trump. Mind you, it is not mere disagreement with his political style or philosophy. Rather, it is an isotope of hatred spawned by the belief that Trump usurped the office rightfully “belonging” to Hillary Clinton and so acidic in nature that it cannot be rectified with reason. In their twisted view, Trump is the usurper, not Obama. Wow. Let us together say it again: you cannot fix stupid.

Hate, at least for anyone other than President Trump (and his millions of supporters), may not be welcomed in homes displaying the uplifting signs. But once the front door is opened, one can immediately see and smell inside that hypocrisy is everywhere in full bloom. And like the Corpse flower, it smells really, really bad.
