

The Legions of Mentally Deficient Voters

by Joseph DeMaio, ©2022

Wikipedia

(Dec. 26, 2022) — Let us assume, for two nanoseconds, that there was even the remote chance that the 2022 election and ballot-counting process throughout the nation – especially in the Pennsylvania Senate contest (Oz v. Fetterman), the Georgia Senate contest (Walker v. Warnock); the Arizona Governor’s race (Lake v. Hobbs) and the Nevada Senate race (Laxalt v. Masto) – was fraud-free and not hopelessly compromised. I know..., I know..., BIG assumption.

Let us further assume, purely for the sake of argument, that the results in all of these races were accurately tabulated and canvassed and that the various judicial “reviews” of challenges were similarly legitimate such that the Democrat “actually” garnered more lawful votes than the defeated Republican. Another BIG assumption.

Taking all of the foregoing assumptions as being true, there is but one solitary, “non-fraud” or “non-conspiracy theory” conclusion to be drawn: the nation has become infested with legions of mentally impaired voters, virtually all of them residing (or voting) in urban areas. Only an idiot (IQ below 25), an imbecile (IQ 25-50) or a moron (IQ 51-70) would consciously vote for representatives of the Democrat Party. Ever. Period. Full stop.

This issue has been discussed here and here. Those discussions, however, took place before the 2022 mid-term elections. After Nov. 8, 2022, the prior assertions were merely underscored and outlined in neon: with the exception of the GOP re-taking of the House of Representatives – thereby ridding that chamber of perhaps the most partisan, arrogant and deceitful Speaker since 1789... bar none..., and that is saying a lot – more and more urban areas appear to be falling victim to the malignancy known as the Democrat Party.

Where is the vaunted Dr. Anthony Fauci with a new vaccine to address this catastrophic public health emergen ...? oh, wait., he may be part of the prob..., never mind.

Recall that it is the Democrats – along with their addled octogenarian “leader” Brandon the Goof – who have brought us:

- (1) the highest rate of inflation in 40 years, with no end in sight;
- (2) the highest increase in national debt, by far, since 1789, now at $31.5 trillion, without consideration of the $1.7 trillion 2022-2023 Omnibus funding bill yet to be signed by Brandon and which will further turbocharge inflation;

<https://www.gop.gov/nearly-80-suspected-terrorists-have-attempted-to-illegally-cross-our-southern-border-in-this-fiscal-year-alone/>

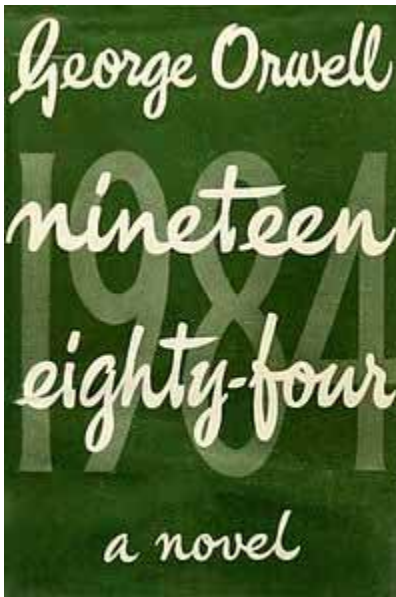

- (3) the eradication of the nation’s southern border upon the risibly ludicrous claim that all aliens seeking entry everywhere, not just at ports of entry, have legitimate claims of “asylum;”
- (4) the abandonment of national energy independence, depletion of the Strategic Petroleum Reserve for political gain and a resultant shift to dependence on foreign sources, including foreign enemy sources;
- (5) skyrocketing crime rates in Democrat-controlled urban jurisdictions;

(6) promises to pack the Supreme Court with even more radical jurists (let us not call them “Justices,” as that would suggest adherence to the rule of law and the Constitution); and

(7) a politicized Department of “Justice” and FBI which, working with “Big Tech” operatives and “teasing” censorship by non-governmental surrogate, actually interfered with the 2020 general election – ahem, BTW, a felony under 18 U.S.C. § 595 – by suppressing the Hunter (“Crack?-what-crack?”) Biden laptop outrage, all to the benefit of Brandon the Goof..., now occupying the Oval Office.

And the list goes on..., and on..., and on....

And although it may yet prove to be a ruse or “head-fake,” the departure from the Party of Fools by Senator Kyrsten Sinema (I. AZ) may be a sign of reason. The same might be said for former House Member Tulsi Gabbard. And keep your eyes peeled for Sen. Joe Manchin (D. WVA) and his future plans.

George Orwell's 1984 described a utopia wherein everyone was programmed to be loyal to “Big Brother,” who spouted propaganda from surveillance devices in people’s homes and could reportedly discern what a person was thinking

In the meantime, just hope that eventually – perhaps via some fantastic deus ex machina – the metastasizing malignancy can be stopped and eliminated from the body politic. Fair and fraud-free elections which engender trust in the electorate – rather than cynicism and doubt – would be a good start. Otherwise, the Republic may be on a trajectory that would make George Orwell – and the Democrats – proud.

That would not be good for your children, their children or theirs hereafter.