

To Impeach or Not to Impeach

“White House has no answer on number of Americans in Afghanistan” – YouTube

(Sep. 3, 2021) — Every time the Person of Slumber (the “POS”) opens his mouth and drools out another message of how “successful” and “historic” his catastrophic exit from Afghanistan was, your faithful servant wants to retch. His recent remarks from the White House simply underscore and italicize the reality – once again – that this is what you get when you insert radical, incompetent and conscienceless (as well as unconscious) Democrats into governmental positions of power. As noted here, it happens every..., single..., time. He needs to be impeached. Now.

Faithful P&E readers, have you ever noticed how many words exist beginning with the letter “M” describing the characteristics of congressional Democrats and, more specifically, Democrat leadership in the House and Senate? To note but a few: malevolent (“having, showing, or arising from intense often vicious ill will, spite or hatred”); malicious (“having or showing a desire to cause harm to someone; given to, marked by, or arising from malice”); mendacious (“given to or characterized by deception or falsehood or divergence from absolute truth”).

And although not a “definition,” per se, one might add as well a “double-M” term: “Michael Moore.” This loon recently opined on MSNBC that “we’re all blessed to have Joe Biden in the White House in these last months, his first year in office.” Blessed? Really? Is this lunatic on a controlled substance?

This is the species of criminal stupidity and radical hatred for this Republic that now constitutes the “fundamental transformation of the United States of America” which the Second Usurper in Chief (the “SUC”) promised everyone back in 2008. Remember, the SUC is the one who originally brought you, back then as a running-mate, the Person of Slumber before he blundered into the Oval Office. After eight years of witnessing him as his vice-president and seeing “up close and personal” how profoundly incompetent he was, the SUC warned Democrats in 2020 against nominating him for the presidency: “Don’t underestimate Joe’s ability to f thing up.”

Stated otherwise, Virginia, the real genesis of the calamities now washing over the nation – from abandoning Americans in Afghanistan, to welcoming pandemic-afflicted illegal aliens over an eradicated southern border to stoking the flames of racial hatred – originated with the SUC. By the way, has anyone heard from him lately regarding the excellent way that the POS has handled the “orderly” exit from Afghanistan? Anyone?

And the hits just keep coming. We now learn that, thanks to the POS decision to hastily abandon not only Kabul; the Bagram military air base; billions in military equipment; and thousands of Afghans and American citizens, during execution of the exit “strategy,” he had a telephone call (gasp!!...) with the former president of Afghanistan, Ashraf Ghani.

As the Taliban hyenas began overrunning the country, the POS dialed up President Ghani and asked him, in effect, to lie about the threat being posed by the Taliban. He suggested that Ghani manufacture the perception that everything was under control and that the hyenas were losing. Ghani refused. On the call, the POS reportedly told Ghani: “There is a need, whether it is true or not, there is a need to project a different picture.” (Emphasis added).

Whether it is true or not? Seriously? Was the POS acting on the “instructions” of his handlers? So here we have the POS telling the President of Afghanistan by telephone to lie about the nature of the threat for political posturing effect, and not a peep of “impeachment now!” from the same Democrats who actually impeached President Trump – the first time – over a call he made to Ukrainian President Zelensky suggesting that he ferret out corruption in his own government? Unconfirmed rumors continue to circulate that the POS was taking a cue from “Baghdad Bob” in the attempt to get Ghani to lie for political cover.

Bottom line: the POS and the Democrats now controlling the Congress, and in particular the leadership, are malevolent; malicious; mendacious creatures. Following the POS call to Ghani, another “M” term comes to mind: “Machiavellian.”

The Democrats’ grip on the Congress must be broken, if not now, then absolutely in 2022. Both the House and the Senate need to be returned to the adults under the Capitol dome..., and that means not the Democrats. They are the ones – led by the POS – who have precipitated the disaster we now face. And waiting for 2022 or 2024 to remedy the situation presents serious risks. At minimum, and even if doomed to Democrat-orchestrated failure, the effort must be undertaken.

Finally, one additional “double-M” name should be mentioned: Mitch McConnell. The Senate minority leader takes the position that no impeachment will take place. With both the House and the Senate controlled by Democrats, the ultimate failure of an impeachment of the POS is not exactly rocket science.

That does not mean, however, that the effort should not be undertaken or attempted, particularly if the House returns to GOP control, either now or following the 2022 election. Remember the call to arms of the 60’s, when radical leftist Eldridge Cleaver advised: “You’re either part of the solution, or you’re part of the problem.”

The Democrats should be compelled to go on the record as either supporting impeachment or acquiescing in the continued catastrophic blunders of the loon at 1600 until 2024. Senator McConnell believes that the place to remedy the present problem is “at the ballot box.” Given the catastrophic performance of the POS in a mere eight months, a persuasive argument could be made that waiting another 24 hours to begin impeachment proceedings is too long.

Two questions for Sen. McConnell: (1) after the 2020 general election debacle – no other word better describes the event – will you guarantee a fair election “at the ballot box” in 2022 and 2024? (2) while waiting for the 2022 and 2024 elections, will you indemnify the Nation against all future apocalyptic events precipitated during the wait by the guy with access to the nuclear missile launch codes?

I’ll wait.
