

Write letters and emails to your Representatives in Congress

Have you all written letters, or sent an emails, to your Congressman and Senators about the Berg vs. Obama case in front of Justice Souter of the Supreme Court. If not, you should. Feel free to use some of the verbiage and details in the below link which you can use to prepare your own letters and emails. Better for each of us to write our own. Boiler plate, form letters get ignored too. I have FAX'd several letter tonight. Signed letters and FAXs get more attention than emails too, from my experience. I suggest for now that you only write or email conservative, constitutionally orientated members of Congress. The Obamaye Socialists, Far Lefties, Liberals, Progressives, and Moderates and whatever of that same ilk will just ignore you and give you a vague, non-specific, pabulum type answer, imo.
